

DELTA ROE

Launch Kit

Google Business Profile overhaul + review request & reply playbook · July 2026

Two ready-to-use playbooks for launch week: everything to paste into your Google Business Profile in one sitting, and word-for-word templates for asking clients for reviews and replying to them. Claude knows both documents — it can walk you through every step.

Delta Roe — Google Business Profile Overhaul Kit

Everything below is ready to paste into the Google Business Profile (GBP) dashboard in one sitting. Sign in at <https://business.google.com> with the Google account that owns (or will claim) the "Delta Roe" listing, then work top to bottom.

Field limits verified July 2026: business description 750 characters, per-service description 300 characters, posts 1,500 characters (only the first ~100–150 show before "More", so front-load).

Before you start: confirm the listing shows the exact name, address, and phone used everywhere else — `Delta Roe · 9075 Elk Grove Blvd, Suite 220A, Elk Grove, CA

95624 · (916) 206-1752`. Consistency across Google, Yelp, Facebook, and the website is a ranking factor. Also confirm hours match the site: Mon–Wed 9am–9pm, Thu 9am–5pm, Fri 1pm–3pm, Sat 11am–3pm, Sun closed.

1. Business description (paste as-is — 748/750 characters)

Delta Roe is a healing sanctuary in historic Old Town Elk Grove offering reiki, sound baths, chakra alignment, guided meditation, and life coaching for the greater Sacramento area. Tamika Banks — Certified Reiki Master and Empowerment Life Coach — blends Tibetan and crystal singing bowls tuned to 432 Hz with hands-on energy healing, essential oils, and deep rest. Sessions are private, by appointment, and always fully clothed. Whether you carry stress, grief, or burnout, you leave lighter. Sound baths from $77, memberships from $33/month, plus group sound baths, corporate wellness, gift cards, and the Sound of Paint workshop series. Black-owned and women-owned, serving Elk Grove, Sacramento, Laguna, and Galt. Same-week openings are common.

Why it's built this way: Google previews only the first ~250 characters, so the opening sentence carries every core keyword ("reiki," "sound baths," "chakra alignment," "meditation," "life coaching," "Elk Grove," "Sacramento"). Google policy forbids URLs and promo language ("50% off!") in this field — don't add any.

2. Categories

Set in Edit profile → About → Business category. Category names verified against the July 2026 GBP category list.

SLOT	CATEGORY	WHY
Primary	Reiki therapist	Most specific match for the core service; drives "reiki near me"
Secondary	Meditation center	Captures "meditation Sacramento / Elk Grove" searches
Secondary	Wellness center	Broad umbrella for sound baths + fascia + events
Secondary	Life coach	Coaching + Soulful Journey program
Secondary	Holistic medicine practitioner	Alternative-wellness discovery searches

Also type "sound" into the category search box — if Google offers a Sound therapy / sound-healing category in your region, add it as a sixth; availability of that one couldn't be confirmed from outside the dashboard. Don't exceed ~5–6 categories total; dilution hurts the primary.

3. Services (Edit profile → Services)

Add each service under the matching category. Descriptions below are all under the 300-character limit. Enter prices exactly — Google shows them in the profile.

UNDER "REIKI THERAPIST"

Reiki Session — $144 (30 min)

Gentle, intuitive energy healing with a Certified Reiki Master. You rest fully clothed while light or hovering touch moves through the body's energy centers, layered with singing bowls, essential oils, and guided breath. Deep nervous-system release for stress, grief, and burnout.

Reiki & Chakra Alignment — $144 (30 min)

Reiki energy healing applied center by center from root to crown, clearing energetic blockages with hands-on work, guided meditation, and crystals matched to each chakra. The session closes with grounding so the alignment holds.

Reiki + Sound Bath — $188 (30 min)

Our most-booked combination: hands-on reiki healing while 432 Hz Tibetan and crystal singing bowls wash over you. Emotional release and deep meditative rest in a single private session.

Distance Reiki (Virtual) — $144 (30 min)

Reiki over Zoom from anywhere — a long-established practice. Settle in at home while Tamika works with your energy remotely, with guided relaxation and aftercare. Serves clients beyond the Sacramento area.

UNDER "MEDITATION CENTER" / "WELLNESS CENTER"

Sound Bath — $77 (30 min)

Lie back under blankets while Tibetan and crystal singing bowls tuned to 432 Hz — layered with binaural beats — guide your brain into deep meditative rest. No touch, no experience needed. The gentlest introduction to energy work in Elk Grove.

Chakra Alignment + Sound Bath — $177 (30 min)

The signature Delta Roe reset: intuitive chakra balancing with reiki, crystals, and targeted sound frequencies, sealed with a 432 Hz sound bath. For the stuck, foggy, "off" feeling that lingers after stress, loss, or change.

Fascia Flow Reset + Sound Bath — $188 (30 min)

Gentle, sustained fascia release paired with a 432 Hz sound bath — for tension massage and stretching can't reach. Sound keeps the nervous system in rest-and-release so the tissue actually lets go. Ideal for desk-bound professionals and athletes.

Group Sound Bath / Private Events — price varies

Private group sound baths for birthdays, bridal parties, teams, and celebrations — in-studio or on location around Elk Grove and Sacramento. Groups of 6–20 work beautifully. Email Info@deltaroe.com with your date and group size.

Corporate Wellness — price varies

On-site sound baths, guided meditation, and stress-reset sessions for Sacramento-area workplaces, or host your team in the Old Town Elk Grove studio. A wellness benefit HR can put on a calendar.

The Sound of Paint (Workshop) — see events

Delta Roe's signature workshop series: a live sound bath tuned to a single chakra while you paint what the frequency moves in you. No art skill needed — the bowls do the guiding. The series travels all seven centers, root to crown.

Sound-Integrated Self-Defense™ — see events

A format created and trademarked by Tamika Banks: practical self-defense training woven with sound work — learning to hold your ground and your center in the same session. Recurring dates in Elk Grove.

UNDER "LIFE COACH"

Life Coaching — Clarity, Healing & Growth — $250 (90 min)

One-on-one empowerment coaching with a certified life coach and author: naming what you actually want, dismantling limiting beliefs, and building the path between. Energy work can be woven in when the block lives deeper than logic.

Free Discovery Call — $0 (30 min)

A free 30-minute call with Tamika to talk through what you're carrying and which session fits. Zero pressure, zero cost — you'll know within the half hour whether this is your person.

Soulful Journey Transformation Program — $399/month

A 12-month transformation container: three private 30-minute sessions each month (coaching or wellness), a personalized monthly wellness plan, a guided journal, the full premium library, priority messaging, and 15% off everything else. Built for seasons of real change.

4. Attributes (Edit profile → About → Attributes / "From the business")

Enable every one of these that GBP offers (the exact set shown depends on category):

- Identifies as Black-owned ✓
- Identifies as women-owned ✓
- Appointment required ✓ (listed under Planning)
- Online appointments ✓ (booking runs through deltaroe.com)
- Onsite services ✓ (group/corporate sessions travel to the client)
- Language assistance / LGBTQ+ friendly — Tamika's call; recommend enabling LGBTQ+ friendly, it matches the studio's welcome-everyone stance
- Restroom ✓ if accurate

Accessibility attributes — verify before enabling. The studio is upstairs in Suite 220A. Only mark "Wheelchair accessible entrance/elevator" if the building actually has an elevator; a wrong accessibility attribute generates angry reviews.

5. Seeded Q&A (8 pairs)

Google lets the owner both ask and answer questions on their own profile — this is encouraged, not gaming. Post each question from any signed-in account, then answer from the Delta Roe business account so the answer carries the "owner" badge. These mirror the site FAQ (lib/faqs.ts), trimmed for Google.

Q1: I've never done anything like this. What should I book first?

Start with a Sound Bath — $77 for 30 minutes. No touch, no talking required, nothing to be good at: you lie down under blankets while singing bowls tuned to 432 Hz do the work. If you'd rather talk it through first, the 30-minute Discovery Call is free.

Q2: What should I wear, and do I get undressed?

Comfortable, loose clothing — you remain fully clothed for every service; only your shoes come off. Skip heavy perfume, since the studio uses essential oils as part of the experience.

Q3: Where do I park?

Delta Roe is upstairs at 9075 Elk Grove Blvd, Suite 220A, in historic Old Town Elk Grove. Free street parking is available on and around Elk Grove Blvd, and Old Town's public lots are a short walk away.

Q4: Do I have to believe in energy healing for it to work?

No. Skeptics are welcome, and many of the studio's most loyal clients started as skeptics. At minimum you'll experience 30 minutes of profound rest in a candle-lit room — and rest that deep is measurably good for your nervous system.

Q5: What's the difference between a sound bath and reiki?

A sound bath ($77) is no-touch, pure rest — ideal if your mind races. Reiki ($144) is hands-on energy healing for something specific you're carrying. Can't decide? Reiki + Sound Bath ($188) combines both and is the most-booked session.

Q6: How much do sessions cost?

Sound Bath $77 · Reiki $144 · Reiki & Chakra Alignment $144 · Chakra Alignment + Sound Bath $177 · Reiki + Sound Bath $188 · Fascia Flow Reset + Sound Bath $188 — all 30 minutes. Life Coaching is $250 for 90 minutes. The Discovery Call is free, and memberships start at $33/month.

Q7: Do you offer gift cards?

Yes — a $77 sound bath makes an unforgettable gift for someone who "can't relax," and $144 covers a full reiki session. Call (916) 206-1752 or email Info@deltaroe.com and it can be arranged same-day with a personal note.

Q8: Can I book Delta Roe for a group, party, or my workplace?

Yes — private group sound baths for birthdays, bridal parties, and teams (6–20 people), in-studio or on location around Elk Grove and Sacramento, plus corporate wellness sessions. Email Info@deltaroe.com with your date and group size.

6. Photo shot-list (12 shots from Tamika's phone)

Specs: JPG or PNG, 10 KB–5 MB each, minimum 720×720 px (any modern phone is fine), no filters, no text overlays, shoot in daylight or warm lamp light and hold still — GBP rejects blurry/dark uploads. Profiles with 10+ real photos get dramatically more calls and direction requests. Real photos only — of the actual studio and of Tamika herself. (The website's no-stock-faces rule is about stock imagery; genuine photos of Tamika are exactly what GBP wants.)

#	SHOT	NOTES	UPLOAD AS
1	Building exterior from Elk Grove Blvd	Step back far enough to show the historic Old Town context; golden hour if possible	Exterior
2	Entrance + Suite 220A signage / stairway	This is the "will I find it?" photo — shoot exactly what a first-timer sees	Exterior
3	Session room, wide, set for a session	Table dressed, candles lit, lights low but exposure bright enough to read detail	Interior
4	Singing bowls arrangement, close-up	Tibetan + crystal bowls together; mallet resting on a bowl edge	Interior
5	Candle-lighting ritual, hands only	Tamika's hands lighting the candles — moody, brand-perfect	At work
6	Crystals + chakra stones laid out	The seven-stone lineup on dark cloth reads beautifully at thumbnail size	Interior
7	Portrait of Tamika in the studio	Warm, direct, queenly — this becomes the face of the profile	Team
8	Tamika playing the bowls (action)	Mid-session angle, motion in the mallet hand	At work
9	The cocoon: mat, blankets, eye pillow	Shot from client's-eye level — "this is where you'll rest"	Interior
10	FLY Queen + The Last Greyhound books / apothecary corner	Stack the books with a candle; establishes author credibility	Interior
11	Sound of Paint setup or finished paintings	Easels + bowls together, or a grid of client paintings	At work
12	Welcome view: door open into the glowing studio	The threshold shot — darkness outside, gold light inside	Interior

Also upload: Logo = public/emblem.png (square). Cover photo = shot 3 or 12 cropped to 16:9 (1080×608 or larger).

7. Four ready-to-paste GBP posts (one per week, launch month)

Post from Updates (or Offer/Event where noted). Each is well under the 1,500-character limit; the first line does the work because Maps truncates early.

Attach the suggested photo from the shot-list. Button links go to <https://deltaroe.com> (or the direct page once the domain cutover is live).

Week 1 — Update • photo #12 • button: "Learn more" → deltaroe.com

The sanctuary has a new home online. ✨

Delta Roe's new website is live — every session explained honestly (what happens, what it costs, what you'll feel), a 60-second 432 Hz sound sample you can play with headphones, and online booking around the clock.

If you've been circling the idea of a reiki session or your first sound bath, friend, this is your sign. Come see what we've built for you.

Week 2 — Update · photo #4 · button: "Book" → booking link

What is a sound bath, exactly?

Thirty minutes of lying down — wrapped in blankets, eyes closed — while Tibetan and crystal singing bowls tuned to 432 Hz wash over you in waves. Your only job is to lie there. Most people drop into a dream-like state within minutes, and better sleep that night is the #1 thing clients report.

No experience needed. No touch. Nothing to be good at. $77, private, right here in Old Town Elk Grove. Your nervous system has been asking for this.

Week 3 — Event · photo #11 · button: "Learn more" → deltaroe.com/events

The Sound of Paint 🎨

A live sound bath tuned to a single chakra — while you paint what the frequency moves in you. No art skill needed; the bowls do the guiding. The series travels all seven energy centers, root to crown, one color at a time.

Seats are small and they go. Dates and details on the events page — bring a friend who needs to exhale.

Week 4 — Update · photo #7 · button: "Book" → booking link

First. Love. Yourself. 👑

That's not just the title of Tamika's book — it's the entire philosophy of this studio. Self-care isn't a luxury you earn after everything else is done; it's the foundation everything else stands on.

This week, do the thing you keep postponing: book the sound bath ($77), the reiki session ($144), or the free 30-minute discovery call. Same-week openings are common. You've poured for everyone else — come let something pour into you.

Keep the rhythm going after launch month: one post per week, alternating education / event / self-love / offer. Posts expire from prominence after ~6 months but keep working in the profile feed.

8. Grab the review short-link (do this the same sitting)

- Open the profile in Google Search (search "Delta Roe Elk Grove" while signed in as the owner) or at business.google.com.

- Click "Ask for reviews" (sometimes shown as Share review form under the profile menu).

- Copy the short link — it looks like `https://g.page/r/XXXXXXXXXX/review`.
- Paste it into these four places:

- `lib/site.ts` → `REVIEW_URL` constant (replaces the `REPLACE_ME` placeholder; this powers the gold button on deltaroe.com/review)

- docs/review-templates.md → every [REVIEW-LINK] placeholder
 - Facebook page "Review us on Google" pinned post (optional)
 - Nowhere else needed — the printed QR card points at deltaroe.com/review, which forwards visitors to this same link, so printed cards never go stale even if Google changes the short-link format.

Delta Roe — Review Request & Reply Templates

Replace [REVIEW-LINK] with the Google review short-link from the GBP dashboard

(see docs/gbp-kit.md, section 8) — or simply use deltaroe.com/review, which works in every template and lets people choose Google or Yelp.

Policy note (important): send the ask to every client after a session — not just the happy ones. Filtering who gets asked ("review gating") violates Google's review policies and can get reviews wiped. One flow for everyone; the /review page already gives an "email Tamika directly" path for anyone who'd rather talk privately.

Timing: send the same evening or next morning, while the calm is still in their body. One follow-up a week later if they haven't clicked — then stop.

Email — Variant A (same evening / next morning)

Subject: How do you feel today?

Hi [First name],

It was an honor to hold space for you today. Drink your water, rest easy, and let the session keep settling in — the shift often deepens over the next day or two.

One small favor: if something in today's session gave you what you came for, would you share a sentence about it? Your words are how the next stressed-out, can't-switch-off soul in Elk Grove finds their way to the studio.

Leave a review here (it takes about a minute): [REVIEW-LINK]

And if anything missed the mark, reply to this email instead — I read every word and I'd rather hear it from you directly.

First love yourself, Tamika Delta Roe · Old Town Elk Grove · (916) 206-1752

Email — Variant B (gentle follow-up, ~1 week later)

Subject: A sentence from you goes a long way

Hi [First name],

Just checking in — how has your body been holding the calm since your session?

If Delta Roe gave you something worth keeping — better sleep, a lighter chest, a quieter mind — a short review helps someone else say yes to the care they've been putting off. A single honest sentence is plenty:

[REVIEW-LINK]

Thank you for trusting me with your energy. That's never lost on me.

With gratitude, Tamika

SMS — Variant A (same evening)

Hi [First name], it's Tamika at Delta Roe 🙏 Thank you for letting me hold space for you today. If the session gave you what you needed, a one-sentence review helps another soul find the studio: [REVIEW-LINK] — and if anything felt off, just text me back instead. First love yourself. 💛

SMS — Variant B (short + sweet, next day)

[First name], how's the calm holding? 💛 If you loved your session at Delta Roe, would you leave a quick review? Takes a minute, means the world: [REVIEW-LINK] — Tamika

Owner replies to reviews

Reply to every review within a few days — Google shows response rate, and future clients read the replies as closely as the reviews. Two rules: never reveal session details the client didn't mention themselves (their review sets the boundary of what's public), and never argue.

5-STAR REPLY — VARIANT A

Thank you, [First name] 💛 It was an honor to hold that space for you. What you felt in the room, you carry with you — come back anytime your energy asks for it. First love yourself. — Tamika, Delta Roe

5-STAR REPLY — VARIANT B

[First name], this made my whole day. Watching someone walk out lighter than they walked in is exactly why Delta Roe exists. Thank you for trusting me with your energy — the sanctuary is here whenever you need it. 💛 — Tamika

CRITICAL REVIEW REPLY (3 STARS OR BELOW)

[First name], thank you for telling me honestly — I take this seriously. Every session at Delta Roe should leave you feeling cared for, and I'm sorry this one fell short of that for you. I'd love to make it right: please call me directly at (916) 206-1752 or email Info@deltaroe.com so I can hear more and invite you back for a session on me. — Tamika, Owner

Notes for critical replies:

- Reply once, warmly, then move the conversation offline. Don't debate details publicly, even if the review is unfair — future readers judge the reply.

- If a review is fake or violates Google policy (spam, wrong business, hate speech), don't reply first — flag it in the GBP dashboard ("Report review") and wait for the outcome.

- The comped-session offer is Tamika's call; remove that clause if she'd rather not standardize it.
